

class remotely. The physician note was through December 1, 2021. See Exhibit 1, filed under seal.

3. As a result, the University permitted her to attend classes remotely and the time frame was extended through the full Fall semester. See Exhibit 2, Affidavit of Rachel Salem.

4. Ms. Salem returned to the campus on December 26, 2021 to get some belongings and did not return again until January 19, 2022. See Exhibit 2, Affidavit of Rachel Salem.

5. While some of the events complained of allegedly occurred after that date, Ms. Salem was not involved. See Exhibit 2, Affidavit of Rachel Salem.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Salem requests that summary judgment be granted in favor of Defendant Rachel Salem and against Plaintiff.

John J. Condcliffe

---

John J. Condcliffe, Esq.
Levin & Gann, P.A.
1 West Pennsylvania Avenue, Suite 900
Towson, MD 21204
410-321-4659
jcondcliffe@levingann.com
Federal Bar No. 09010